Simple Love ph. Stefano Sasso

Simple love is born as an ode to lost love. It is fragile tale of great celebratory intent. The gesture, used in a sacred and deciphered way as if was a rite, will take the place of the verb to tell, through bodies that passionately unfold, converse, wait for and observe each other.

It is a nude picture of feelings and sensations. A vortex, a challenge of balances and compromises to be found, visually by the body, conceptually with the heart and the mind.

The honesty is the background of a work which triggers moments of silence, memories, tensions and gazes. A need to find inner peace, a place where space-time stops and gives a simple love without archetypes, able to recognize in human frailty the kindness of nostalgia.
